

Chief Officer

The Role

Wellsprings Together is an established, growing, regional charity with a vision to see faith transforming communities.

The role of the Chief Officer is to lead the team to implement this vision across the Anglican Diocese of Leeds to achieve our four strategic aims:

- Parishes & faith groups having the capacity & empowerment to transform their communities collaboratively & sustainably.
- Change agents & leaders embedded in communities bringing about the change they want to see.
- Local communities learning to live together well & experiencing increased levels of cohesion across differences particularly of faith & ethnicity.
- Decision makers at regional & national levels are informed by the needs of grassroots communities and inspired by the response of faith informed social action.

Accountable to the Trustees of the charity, the Chief Officer is responsible for coordinating and supervising the work of the Team. They are responsible for delivering on the strategy and vision of the charity, managing stakeholder relationships, securing funding, and the effective management and leadership of the charity including budgetary responsibilities.
