The Foundation generally provides small grants to small organisations that will make a big difference. Larger grants are also available and in its previous financial year several grants of £50,000 were awarded. Most grants were for under £5,000, however. Application form available on the Foundation's website.

Benefact Trust

<https://benefacttrust.co.uk/>

Benefact Trust exists to make a positive difference to people's lives by funding, guiding and celebrating the work of churches and Christian charities; empowering the most vulnerable and giving people, communities and places a renewed opportunity to flourish.

The Trust are working to change lives and communities for the long-term. It's more than supporting the repair, restoration, protection, improvement, reach and growth of places of Christian worship; and have a range of grant programmes designed to have a positive impact on the wider community, tackling social issues from homelessness and poverty, to climate change and cultural cohesion. Funding is now available under the following grants programmes:

1. Community Impact Grants

A programme of funding aimed at supporting projects that directly address the social challenges faced by some of the most vulnerable communities in our society.

2. Building Improvement Grants

For the essential repair and improvement of churches and Christian buildings.

3. Heritage Skills for Christian Buildings Grants

Focused on the preservation of essential heritage skills and careers through apprenticeships, scholarships, and training courses.

4. Methodist Grants

Bernard Sunley Foundation

One-off grants, generally between £1,000 and £5,000, are available to registered and exempt charities in England and Wales for capital projects in the areas of community (particularly Village Halls), education, health and social welfare.

1. Community: new build, refurbishment and improvements of village halls, scout huts, youth clubs, community centres and similar. This often includes access for the disabled, modernising kitchens, new storage space and updating toilets in line with Health and Safety regulations and the Disability Discrimination Act.

o Village Hall grants, particularly in isolated rural areas where there are limited community facilities. Support is also available for church halls, churches or other buildings providing there is strong evidence that a high proportion of secular activities (accessible to the whole community) take place. Conservation and heritage projects for halls/churches are not generally supported.

o Activities that help young people attain their full potential. Youth Centres, Activity Centres and uniformed youth facilities are regularly supported. Projects that help young people who are at risk of social isolation, offending or criminal activity, as well as ex-offenders can be funded.

2. Education – in particular, children and adults with special educational and learning needs, including educational nature and farm visitor centres. Grants can be awarded for specialist transport and building projects. Please note that any grants for transport should be for new vehicles.

3. Health – especially residential care housing and treatment centres, as well as the provision of equipment to enhance medical treatment and care

4. Social Welfare – grants can range from support for residential premises such as centres for young people at risk, drop-in centres for people who are homeless, and day centres for the elderly. The Social Welfare priority also provides grants for the welfare of ex-military service personnel and those who have worked in the emergency services, especially for projects that address mental health issues. Educational and training facilities may also be supported under this category.

Registered charities and exempt charities in England and Wales may apply for a grant. Applications from eligible organisations working in remote rural and isolated areas are welcomed.

Please note that there is a matched funding requirement for the Foundation's grants. Applicants are usually expected to have sourced and secured 50% of the project costs prior to applying. Projects with a budget of over £50,000 are requested to apply at least 6 months before their project start date.

Funding is not available for:

- o Appliances and equipment such as clothing, furniture, laptops, mobility aids or musical equipment,
- o Building surveys.
- o Charities or projects in Scotland or Northern Ireland.
- o Charities that are fundraising for projects over £10 million.

- o Consumables.
- o Feasibility studies.
- o Individuals.

Fore Trust

Grants of up to £30,000 over 3 years are available to smaller registered charities, Community Interest Companies (CICs) and Community Benefit Societies to transform their impact by unlocking exponential growth, sustainability, efficiency or create some other major step forward. The Trust particularly encourages applications from smaller organisations working with marginalised groups and led by people in the community that may have found it hard to access trust and foundation funding in the past.

The Fore Trust ("The Fore") offers unrestricted grants of up to £30,000 spread over 1-3 years which have the potential to have a transformational impact on an organisation. Unlike many funders, The Fore does not fund project-based work, but looks to make grants that will strengthen organisations for the longer term. Funding might, for example, help organisations:

- o Grow or scale up their work.
- o Increase their internal capacity.
- o Serve new beneficiary groups, or
- o Become more sustainable and efficient.

The Fore particularly encourages applications from small organisations working with marginalised groups and led by people in the community that may have found it hard to access Trust and Foundation funding in the past. The Trust's funding process is specifically designed to level the playing field and give no advantage to those with fundraising experience or connections.

Grants of up to £30,000 over 3 years are available, with no matched funding requirement, to any UK registered charity, CIC, CIO or Community Benefit Society with an income of under £500,000 during their last completed financial year.

To apply for funding, organisations must first register some basic contact details with the Trust. This can be done via a link which appears below the webinar video on its website when the funding round is open. Please note that you cannot see the link if registration is closed.

The number of registrations accepted for each round is capped to ensure the Trust is able to give every application the attention it deserves. Registration is operated on a "first-come, first-served" basis. Once the cap is reached, the round is closed, so please register early. Registration opens at 10am, and is likely to close within 2-3 hours of opening. The Trust advises applicants to wait until they have successfully registered before preparing an application document. Applicants are given 3-4 weeks to do this between registration and the application deadline.

Further information, guidance, Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) are available on The Fore website. <https://thefore.org/applying-for-funding/>
