Strengthening Faith Based Social Action in Cornwall

Grants for Groups in Cornwall.

9th April 2021

We have created this list of possible funding that might be suitable for some of our wonderful Foodbanks, grassroots groups and Faith based social action projects in Cornwall.

We are updating this list weekly as the funding environment continues to change at pace. Many of the grants related to Covid-19 are very quickly changing at the moment, so we would recommend that if you see a relevant emergency or individual grant open, apply quickly.

We also update a grants list for individuals and families in need of emergency financial help. The comprehensive list includes grants for those who have worked in certain professions, support for disabled people, young people, and so much more. You can find the list here:

<https://transformation-cornwall.org.uk/resources/transformation-cornwall-grants-list>

Please contact funders directly with queries on their grant programmes but do please get in touch with Transformation Cornwall if we can help to support you in any way: info@transformation-cornwall.org.uk

This grant is simple to apply for.

Examples include:

- Being active in your local community to help elderly or vulnerable people.
- Minimising the impact of self-isolation for those in quarantine and need access to food, medicines or social care.
- Supporting foodbanks and increasing the number of meals on wheels deliveries to support the elderly.
- Supporting those who are homeless or in temporary accommodation.
- Bringing adventure indoors.
- Projects that encourage responsible and Covid-19 safe outdoor activity.

Aviva Community Fund

<https://www.avivacommunityfund.co.uk/about-us>

Aviva Community Fund have teamed up with Crowdfunder to give charities and community interest companies the opportunity to further build their capabilities, drive sustainable fundraising and leverage our talented and enthusiastic workforce to get their best and brightest ideas off the ground. Eligible causes are invited to submit their projects to the Aviva Community Fund through Crowdfunder. Funding applications are open to projects looking to raise up to £50,000.

Aviva Community fund wants to support projects that boost the resilience of communities in the face of uncertainty, so are investing in two key areas:

- Community resilience: tackling inequality and improving environments to build more connected, more resilient communities
- Financial capability and inclusion: giving people the tools to become more financially independent

The Batchworth Trust

Grants of between £5,000 and £45,000 for UK registered charities working in the UK and overseas for a wide range of charitable causes, but in particular for charities working in the areas of medical research, social welfare and support for young people.

The Trust prioritises small charities with innovative projects or that are addressing a critical issue. Please note that the Trust does not maintain a website. Further information is, however, available on the Charity Commission website.

Applications may be made at any time in writing, addressed to: Mrs J C Chalmers (Chairman), The Batchworth Trust, Unit A Faraday Court Manor, Royal Estate, Crawley, West Sussex, RH10 9PU

Burg-Wächter Secure Communities Scheme

<https://www.burg.biz/uk/community/>

Burg-Wächter Secure Communities Scheme offers free security kits, up to a value of £150, for properties, equipment, or outdoor areas that are used in service of the community and need extra security at this time. The scheme prioritises grassroots organisations who have limited funds and the most difficulty in meeting extra security costs due to the current situation. Any property, equipment or area that is the responsibility of the local community is relevant, including allotments, sports clubs, village halls, common land or community centres. That means any charity, social enterprise, not for profit, or community venture can apply so long as the security kits will be used locally.

Cornwall Community Foundation (CCF): One Programme

<https://www.cornwallcommunityfoundation.com/introduction-to-grants/available-grants/>

CCF have moved their regular funds for community groups and charities based in Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly into one main programme, 'One Programme'.

You can now apply to the One Cornwall programme for grants for community groups and charities based in Cornwall and the Isles Of Scilly. CCF have funding available for emergency and crisis support and for recovery from the effects of the pandemic. CCF administer several area funds covering most of Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly and we have funding available for crime prevention, to improve the natural environment, to improve physical health and wellbeing and to support young people, elderly people and people with a disability.

Details of one other CCF administered grant supporting community groups which is not part of the One Programme is below.

Cornwall Community Foundation (CCF) Headstart Kernow Young Peoples Mental Wellbeing Legacy Fund

<https://www.cornwallcommunityfoundation.com/grants/headstart-kernow-young-peoples-mental-wellbeing-legacy-fund/>

Providing grants to support children and young people aged 10 -16 with their emotional health and mental wellbeing. Open to local community groups, projects and individuals via sponsor agencies to promote resilience and the emotional health and mental wellbeing. (We've listed this also in our separate hardship grants for individuals list). But projects can apply for up to £6,000 per group activity.

GRANTS LIST

An application should make clear how the proposal is linked to at least one of the 5 Ways to Wellbeing:

- Connect
- Be Active (get moving)
- Keep Learning (take time for you)
- Give (give to others)
- Take Notice (stop and take notice).

*Deadline: 02/03/2021. The panel will be reviewing applications on the 13th April 2021

Cornwall Council Community Chest Crisis Scheme

<https://www.cornwall.gov.uk/community-and-living/grants-advice-service/cornwall-councillor-community-grant/>

Cornwall Council Community Chest Crisis Scheme gives grants of up to £1,000 to smaller un-constituted groups who are supporting local communities through the coronavirus crisis. Voluntary Community and Social Enterprise groups that are formally constituted should first apply to access Cornwall Community Foundation's Emergency Fund.

The programme operates across all of Cornwall's 19 Community Network areas, and groups can apply for grants through individual Cornwall councillors.

To apply, simply email your Community Link Officer (CLO) with brief details of your group and the work you're doing. In the email also copy in communitynetworks@cornwall.gov.uk.

The CLO will then contact the relevant Cornwall Councillors to see if they are willing to support your project in principle. Details of the 19 CLOs are on the Community Network Map that can be accessed through the link above.

Coastline Housing is match funding the scheme in the three, main community network areas in which it operates:

- Camborne, Pool, Illogan and Redruth;
- Helston and South Kerrier;
- and parts of Falmouth and Penryn.

This means that community groups in those areas bidding successfully for Community Chest funding would see their cash injection go up by half through the Coastline Housings contribution.

February Foundation

<https://www.thefebruaryfoundation.org/>

The Fitton Trust

Micro-grants usually between £150 and £350 for a wide range of charitable causes provided by registered charities in England, Scotland and Wales.

The Trust normally meets 3 times each year in April, August and December.

Please note that the Trust does not maintain a website.

Please apply at any time in writing to: Mrs Karen Donovan, Secretary.

The Fitton Trust, PO Box 289, Bramhall, Stockport. SK7 0DZ

Foyle Foundation Small Grants Scheme

<http://www.foylefoundation.org.uk/small-grants-scheme/>

The Foyle Foundation has re-opened its Small Grants Scheme to support smaller, grass-roots and local charities across the UK during the Covid-19 crisis.

Organisations which are currently delivering services to the young, vulnerable, elderly, disadvantaged or the general community either directly or through online support can apply for grants of between £1,000 and £10,000.

Funding can be used to cover core costs or essential equipment, to enable ongoing service provision, homeworking, or delivery of online digital services for charities with a turnover of less than £150,000 per annum that can show financial stability and a clear need for their services. Applications can be submitted at any time.

Kellogg's Breakfast Club Grants Programme

<https://www.tfaforms.com/445397>

We are including this grant here, as it may well be of interest to those of you who work closely with your local school and want to recommend this to them.*

Kellogg's has teamed up with Forever Manchester to award grants of £1,000 to school Breakfast Clubs, to help them provide breakfast to those children who need it most. You can apply for an award at any date and you will hear within one month if you have been successful. Please note the fund may close at short notice if oversubscribed.

Please read the following before beginning your application:

- Your breakfast club must be based in a school in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.
- A limited number of grants are available so priority will be given to schools that have either:
 - 35% and above of children eligible for pupil premium funding (for England) and eligible for free school meals (Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales).

Or

- schools that are based in an area which is classified as falling in the 10% of most deprived areas according to the Index of Multiple Deprivation.
- Additionally, if your school has received breakfast club funding from Gregg's or Magic Breakfast within the current academic year, your club will not be considered a priority for support.
- Only one grant per school in each academic year is available.

The Leigh Trust

Small grants averaging just over £3,000 for registered charities in England and Wales that are working in the areas of:

- o Criminal justice.
- o Drug and alcohol rehabilitation.
- o Racial equality and education, and
- o Support for asylum seekers.

Please note that the Trust does not maintain a website. Requests for grant support must be concise and ideally summarised on a single side of A4 and should include the most recent audited accounts, a registered charity number and - most importantly - a cash flow statement for the next 12 months. All applications should also include a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Contact details for the Trust are: The Leigh Trust, 9 Bonhill Street, London. EC2A 4DJ

*Applications may be made at any time

Newby Trust Covid-19 Fund

<https://www.newby-trust.org.uk/how-to-apply/special-category/>

The Newby Trust has designated a Special Fund for smaller charities to provide support during the COVID-19 pandemic. Priority will be given to existing and recent grant recipients and to charities working in the areas of homelessness, food supplies, domestic violence, mental health, young people and older people. Grants of up to £5,000 may be made to cover core costs or to fund operational changes made in response to the crisis.

Ocean Housing: Hardship Fund

<http://www.oceanhousing.com/hardship-fund-support/>

Ocean Housings hardship fund supports local community groups, charities, and other voluntary sector organisations which are serving our local communities, and are experiencing unprecedented demand for services at this time. If you are a voluntary organisation, please download and complete the application form from their website using the link above and email it to help@oceanhousing.com

The Ocean Housing hardship fund also provides direct support to people who are tenants of Ocean Housing (see separate entry under grants for individuals) where their needs cannot easily, or immediately, be met and where financial support is required in areas including helping tenants with bills, fuel costs, and supermarket shopping vouchers, where food banks are unable to assist.

Paul Hamlyn Foundation - Covid 19 Support

<https://www.phf.org.uk/covid-19-support/#covid-19-support>

Paul Hamlyn Foundation have reopened applications to their Covid-19 support fund as of the 30th of October 2020. They have a £20 million emergency fund, and have already made over 350 grants totalling £11 million. They are still prioritising organisations that they have an existing funding relationship with and state that 'Awards through the Emergency Fund are continuing. This is not an open application fund and you will need a PHF grants manager to support your case.' See their website for more details

Paul Hamlyn Foundation Youth Fund

<https://www.phf.org.uk/funds/youth-fund/>

The Youth Fund supports organisations whose main purpose is working with and for young people (aged 14-25) who face complex transitions to adulthood.

Through the Covid-19 crisis we have been made increasingly aware that inequality plays out in ways that connect and intersect across race, gender, class, disability and other characteristics. The pandemic is having a disproportionate impact on young people.

The Youth Fund will support:

- Core operating costs (organisations can request up to £90,000, spread over three years (max £30,000 per year).
- Organisations which provide direct services or infrastructure support

Sport England: Active Together

<https://www.sportengland.org/how-we-can-help/our-funds/return-play-active-together>

Up to £10,000 in match funding, as part of a support package to help clubs and organisations set up and run crowdfunding campaigns related to Covid-19..

Sports England are helping sports clubs and other organisations to set up and run their own crowdfunding campaigns to help sustain themselves through the coronavirus (Covid-19) crisis.

This funding option is about supporting local clubs and organisations through the coronavirus crisis and with the return to play.

This may be the implementation of changes needed to ensure you're adhering to the latest government guidelines around social distancing, it may be the need for additional coaching, facility hire or the purchasing of personal protective equipment to make sure everyone who takes part in activity at your venue is safe.

It could be that a loss of income has severely impacted your ability to survive, or the need to undertake essential maintenance of your facilities that are now not possible due to the crisis.

Sport England Return To Play Community Asset Fund.

<https://www.sportengland.org/how-we-can-help/our-funds/return-play-community-asset-fund>

Provides capital grants of between £10,000 and £50,000 to enable local community groups and sports clubs in England adapt and open venues and spaces so that sport and physical activity can take place during and beyond COVID-19.

Community Asset Grants provide capital funding to help groups, clubs and organisations address the challenges they are facing by:

- o Adapting how they use space and improving ventilation.
- o Converting existing space to meet social distancing requirements, such as additional changing space, and./or
- o Making improvements to buildings or open spaces for temporary use to get more people active by using a vacant warehouse, shop or community centre.

Priority will be given to:

GRANTS LIST

- o Organisations working with Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) communities, people on lower incomes, disabled people, people with long-term health conditions and people experiencing a greater burden of care because of coronavirus, people on lower incomes, disabled people, people with long-term health conditions and people experiencing a greater burden of care because of coronavirus.
- o Organisations that do not have a significant level of reserve funding available to utilise, and
- o Projects located in areas of high deprivation.

*Applications may be made at any time, but please note that funded projects must be able to start within 6 weeks of an application being made to the programme.

Sport England Return to Play: Small Grants

<https://www.sportengland.org/how-we-can-help/our-funds/return-play-small-grants>

Awards of between £300- £10,000 that support clubs and community groups respond to the challenges of returning to play in a coronavirus-safe way.

This could include contributing to covering the costs incurred by having to deliver activity in smaller groups than normal, or having the correct hygiene and safety equipment.

Funding could be used for minor amendments to facilities, additional sports equipment, signage, sanitation and training courses to help you deliver your activities safely. Applications should be focused on returning people to previously run activity, or enabling previous projects to adapt to resume delivery, when that's possible. At this time the fund is not looking to support new projects or start-ups.

Applications should be focused on the key funding priorities of:

- Projects located in areas of high deprivation (decile 1-3 of the Indices of Deprivation).
- Organisations working with Black, Asian and minority ethnic communities, people on lower incomes, disabled people, people with long-term health conditions and people experiencing a greater burden of care because of coronavirus.
- Organisations that don't have a significant level of reserve funding available to utilise.

The Volant Trust: COVID-19 Response Fund

<https://www.volanttrust.org/how-to-apply-covid-19>

The Volant Trust accepts applications from registered charities, community interest companies, community organisations and social enterprises in the UK and internationally that demonstrate a strong focus on alleviating social deprivation and helping vulnerable groups who have been particularly impacted by the Covid-19 pandemic.

Funding is available for project and administrative costs although applications for medical equipment and the production or distribution of PPE will also be considered.

* To receive a decision by October 2021 applications must be submitted between 1st January and 31st July 2021.

Funders Sensitive to Faith Based Projects

AllChurches Trust Ltd

<https://www.allchurches.co.uk/>

AllChurches Trust Ltd supports projects run by churches of many denominations and Christian organisations. Their primary charitable objective is to promote the Christian faith or any other charitable purpose.

The Trust focuses on building communities, helping people to flourish, and growing churches.

Their grants normally fund capital projects and equipment and not salaries or running costs. They only fund projects in the UK and Ireland. They give grants to churches of many denominations, so long as they are members of Churches Together in England (CTE), Action of Churches Together in Scotland (ACTS), Churches Together in Wales (Cytun), the Irish Council of Churches or a local 'churches together' group. All applicants, including education establishments, need to be a UK registered charity, church or have "exempt" status.

The Alliance Family Foundation

Grants for UK registered charities for a wide range of charitable causes, with a preference for projects that focus on education, the relief of poverty and religious activities in England, Wales, Israel and the USA.

Please note that the Foundation does not maintain a website. Applications may be made at any time in writing Lord David Alliance CBE (Chair), The Alliance Family Foundation, Spencer House, 27 St James's Place, London. SW1A 1NR

Anchor Foundation

www.theanchorfoundation.org.uk

The Anchor Foundation offers grants for Christian charities who are working to address social exclusion with a particular interest in charities working within healing and the arts. The Foundation only supports registered charities and offers grants in the range of £500 to £10,000. The Anchor Foundation cannot enter into correspondence about individual applications or pre-application support.

The Andrew Anderson Trust

Provide small grants of £1,000 or less for UK registered charities working in the areas of religious activities, education and training, health and sickness, and overseas aid. The Trust's main area of grant support is evangelical organisations and churches. Individuals are also regularly grant aided.

Please note that the Trust does not maintain a website. Applications may be made at any time addressed to: Miss A A Anderson, Secretary, The Andrew Anderson Trust, 1 Cote House Lane, Westbury-on-Trym, Bristol, BS9 SUW, Tel: 07983 355 9127
Email: andrew_r_anderson@yahoo.co.uk

Archer Trust

www.archertrust.org.uk

GRANTS LIST

The Archer Trust provides funding for small UK charities who support needy or deserving people including those with physical or mental disabilities and the disadvantaged. Grants vary from £250 to £3,000. They prioritise organisations working in areas of high unemployment/deprivation and favour charities who make good use of volunteers. Trustees meet twice a year.

Association for Industrial Archaeology - Restoration Grants

<https://industrial-archaeology.org/index.php/aia-awards/restoration-grants/>

Restoration Grants of up to £20,000 are available for a range of historic and industrial archaeology restoration projects. Grants are for the restoration of historically, technically, architecturally, and/or archaeologically important industrial buildings, structures, machinery, vehicles and vessels within the UK. Applications usually relate to a single, tangible structure/artefact, or a cohesive collection of artefacts such as machine-tools in a workshop.

From 2020 onwards the available Grants pot is divided into two categories:

Major projects where the maximum grant that can be awarded is £20,000. The grant from the AIA must be a significant part of the total project cost, not just a small contribution to a very large project, so that the AIA grant has real impact. The AIA would not normally fund projects where their grant represents less than 20% of the total project costs;

Small projects are allocated at least 20% of the available funds. The grant limit is £7,500, for which the total cost of the project, excluding the value of volunteer labour, must not exceed £10,000.

The Bishop Radford Trust

<https://bishopradsfordtrust.org.uk/>

The Bishop Radford Trust is a charity which supports Christian ministry in the UK and internationally. They offer grants of up to £5,000 for UK registered charities to support the work of the Christian church in the UK and internationally. Larger grants of £15,000 are available for organisations that have already received a grant from the trust. They fund those who aim to promote the work of the Christian church following the principles of the Church of England in undertaking church related projects promoting charitable purposes, the education of priests, future priests and church workers, and to support Church Ministry.

Childs Charitable Trust

<https://childscharitabletrust.org/>

The Childs Charitable Trust is a grant-making trust, supporting Christian UK registered charities and organisations working both in the UK and overseas.

Projects will be considered that fall into the following categories:

- Youth - the trust looks to support projects working in schools and with vulnerable and disengaged young people in the UK. Supported activities may include RE Lessons; School Assemblies; Lunchtime/After school clubs; Evangelism; Personal Development Programmes; Homelessness Prevention.
- Outreach - the trust works to share the gospel of Christ by supporting all aspects of Christian outreach both in the UK and overseas and can fund, for example, Church Plants; Overseas Mission; Training in Evangelism; Chaplaincy.
- Society - the trust believes people of faith bring a valuable contribution to social action and justice and support initiatives that have a positive impact in their society.

GRANTS LIST

Grants could support, for example: Counselling; night shelters; alcohol/drug rehabilitation; homelessness; or prison/ex-offenders work.

- Education - the trust supports initiatives involved in all areas of Christian education including Bible Translation; Media Initiatives; Bible Colleges; Literature; Apologetics.

The trustees can't guarantee to fund all applicants, but will give prayerful consideration to every request they receive and aim to meet monthly to discuss applications.

Churchcare - Conservation Grants

<https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/churchcare/our-conservation-grants>

The Elmgrant Trust:

<http://elmgrant.org.uk/>

The Elmgrant Trust awards small grants to voluntary and community organisations in the South West of England for projects that improve the lives of local people, particularly through education, the arts and social sciences.

Grant awards can cover core running costs or project costs of small, established organisations. Although the Trust will fund across the South West, it favours projects in Devon and Cornwall.

The Equitable Charity Trust

Grants for registered charities in England and Wales working in the areas of:

- o Relieve poverty.
- o Support educational establishments.
- o Support religious education, and
- o General charitable purposes.

The Trust does not maintain a website, although further information is available on the Charity Commission website.

The Trust states that it considers all grant applications and decides on the level of grant to be made depending on the cause and the level of reserves.

Applications should be made in writing, addressed to:

GRANTS LIST

Mr A Vaisfiche and Mrs. E. Vaisfiche, The Equitable Charitable Trust, C/o Sefton Yodaiken & Co., Chartered Accountants, Fairways House, George Street, Prestwich, Manchester M25 9WS. Tel: 0161 773 9411

- The reduction in rate of prisoner reoffending.

The Headley Trust

<http://www.sfct.org.uk/Headley.html>

Operated by The Sainsbury Family Charitable Trusts, the Headley Trust funds projects in the areas of arts and heritage in the UK. They fund charities working in the areas of the arts, heritage, education, health, social welfare, cathedrals and major churches, parish churches, and arts. They prefer to fund schemes that can be successfully replicated or become self-sustaining

The Jerusalem Trust

www.sfct.org.uk/Jerusalem

This scheme makes grants available for voluntary and community organisations undertaking projects for the promotion of the Christian faith and Christian education in the UK. In particular, the scheme wishes to support projects with the following themes: evangelism, Christian education, Christian media, and Christian art.

The John Booth Charitable Foundation

Grants generally between £2-10,000 for registered charities in England operating in the areas of:

- o The arts: by helping various arts organisations to put on performances and exhibitions which enhance the quality of life of the communities they serve.
- o Christian religion: by empowering churches and faith groups to serve the common good in a variety of ways such as food banks, credit unions and other outreach activities.
- o Education: by enabling significant numbers of young people to have access to education and training.

*The Foundation does not maintain a website. Applications may be made at any time in writing, addressed to: John Booth (Chair), The John Booth Charitable Foundation, 9 Cambridge Gate, London. NW1 4JX.

The John James Charitable Trust

www.johnjamestrust.org

GRANTS LIST

Grants are available to provide support for individuals and organisations with a Christian focus, as well as funding for ministry training. The Joseph Rank Trust

www.ranktrust.org

An independent Christian grant-maker working with all Christian denominations in the UK. The principal object of the Trust is "to advance the Christian Faith" - to further the Kingdom of God. The Trustees have identified two main areas of interest - projects that demonstrate a Christian approach to the practical, educational and spiritual needs of people of all ages; and the adaptation of Church properties with a view to providing improved facilities for use by the church and its work in the community in which it is based.

Laing Family Trusts

www.laingfamilytrusts.org.uk

The Laing Family Trusts are a group of four grant-making trusts with a Christian foundation - the Beatrice Laing Trust, the Kirby Laing Foundation, the Martin Laing Foundation and the Maurice & Hilda Laing Charitable Trust. The Trusts seek to support projects which promote Christian faith and values, express Christian faith through practical action to care for those in need and encourage young people to realise their potential. The Trusts' website provides information about the priority areas of giving of each of the four Trusts and the application process.

Marsh Christian Trust

www.marshchristiantrust.org

The Trust focuses on providing funding which could help small charities pay for various running costs, such as volunteer expenses, training days, equipment maintenance and other core outgoings. The application requirements are a cover letter and a copy of the most recent Annual Report and Accounts. Grants are unrestricted and range from £300-£2,000.

The Trust funds the following core areas:

- Arts and heritage
- Education and training
- Environmental causes and animal welfare
- Healthcare
- Social welfare

National Churches Trust

<https://www.nationalchurchestrust.org/our-grants>

The National Churches Trust supports a wide variety of projects at churches, chapels and meeting houses through their grant programmes. Their grants are available to any Christian place of worship in the UK that is open for regular worship. From repairing a roof to helping to install an accessible toilet - and many other projects - their grants help keep churches open for worship and community activities and allow them to continue to serve people and communities in all sorts of ways.

The National Churches Trust offer 4 types of grant:

GRANTS LIST

- Cornerstone: For urgent and essential structural repair projects with estimated costs of at least £100,000 that will help places of worship become wind and watertight, and for installing kitchens and toilets with estimated costs of at least £30,000, to improve access for all.
